AEE NE NEWSLETTER OCTOBER 2022

The Association of Energy Engineers - New England Chapter

Raytheon | RISE ENGINEERING | AHA | Mechanical Insulation Solutions Network | GDS Associates, Inc. ENGINEERS & CONSULTANTS

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Hi Everyone,

For those who have not heard, I am saddened to inform you that Sara Emerick - a dedicated energy professional known by many in our industry - passed away recently. We ask that you keep Sara and her family in your thoughts. Please see the panel to the right for information on an upcoming Celebration of Life, as well as a GoFundMe that's been created for Sara's daughter.

Here are a few updates on what we've been up to in the New England Chapter:

AEE November Meeting – Join us on November 9th at the Embassy Suites in Waltham for our meeting on Mitigating Energy Rates – Energy/Finance Project Models: Incentives and the IRA. In this meeting, our speakers will inform us on ways to overcome the recent rise in energy rates, as well as break down the Inflation Reduction Act and what it means for our industry. We've also launched a new "Bring a Buddy" campaign where we'll be raffling off $100 in prizes for anyone who invites and registers someone who is new to the energy industry. You can register on our website by clicking here.

CWEEL November Meeting – Join us earlier on the 9th at Noon EST for a free virtual meeting on the Department of Energy's commitment to equity, minority business, workforce development and how to access federal dollars in support of this. You can register for this meeting by clicking here.

New Website – Our new website is up and running. We invite you to check it out at aeenewengland.org.

We're also excited to announce that we'll be back in person for the 2023 Annual Energy Outlook in January. Stay tuned for more information in the coming months.
I look forward to seeing you at one of our upcoming events soon!

-John Maw

REMEMBERING SARA EMERICK

Earlier this month, the Leidos family and energy community tragically lost Sara Emerick to domestic violence.

Sara was a unique soul, a great friend, a motivated coworker, a caring daughter and sister, and a wonderful mom to Emma.

Emma was the center of her life.

To honor Sara's memory, funds are being collected to help Emma, so that she can achieve the goals and dreams Sara had for her.

CWEEL UPDATE

CWEEL Council on Women in Energy & Environmental Leadership NEW ENGLAND

Andrea Moshier - CWEEL Lead

Thanks to everyone who joined our October meeting. If you missed it, the presentation is available on our website. Jen Muir, P.E., founder and president of JKMuir presented on, "Energy Management & Emerging Trends." Founded in 2008, JKMuir is an engineering consulting firm, specifically focused on the "water/energy nexus" and sustainable public infrastructure.
Jen's presentation covered decarbonization, opportunities to reduce energy needs in water utilities, and how water utilities can contribute distributed energy resources to a decarbonized grid.

CWEEL New England is excited to co-host our November meeting with the New England chapters of the American Association of Blacks in Energy (AABE) and the Association of Energy Services Professionals (AESP). Join us for a virtual lunch discussion on diversity in energy with Shalaya Morissette. Shalaya is currently Chief of the Minority Business and Workforce Division within the U.S. Department of Energy's Office of Impact and Diversity.

Looking to 2023, we're making plans for a range on in person and virtual events, focusing on the CWEEL pillars of professional development, scholarship and mentorship. Please reach out to cweel@aeenewengland.org with your questions, ideas and suggestions.
